AI Future

AI Future Forum is part of the global Blockchain Life Forum — a unique expert platform fully dedicated to exploring the synergy between two of the most groundbreaking technologies of our time: Artificial Intelligence and Blockchain.

The event will be held on April 14–15 in Moscow, at the same venue as the Blockchain Forum.

«Today, the crypto market is rapidly shifting toward AI. At AI Future, participants will be the first to see solutions that are shaping the synergy between blockchain and AI technologies».

– Sergei Khitrov, founder of Blockchain Life, Listing.Help and Jets.Capital.
